Administration, Faculty, & Staff

To the Class of 2005:

Congratulations to the class of 2005! Each of you should be extremely proud of your numerous accomplishments. Whether in the classroom, athletic fields, or in any of the wide variety of extracurricular activities offered at the high school, you have exceeded all of our expectations. It is amazing that the past four years at D-R have passed so quickly. I am certain that you will continue to flourish as you progress to college, the military, or the world of work. Best wishes to all for a bright and prosperous future!

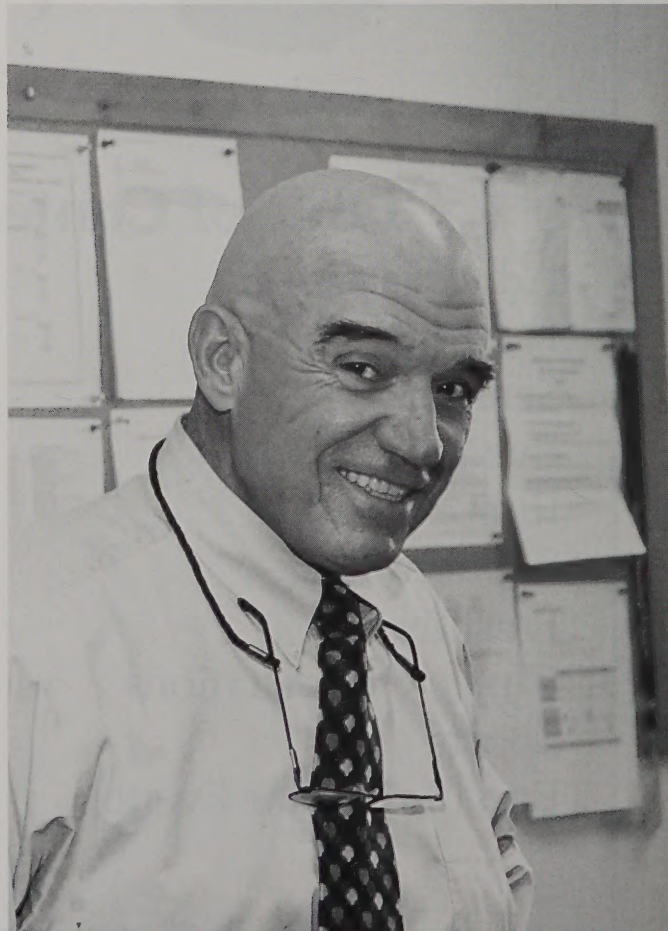

Dr. Francis J. Connor
Superintendent of Schools

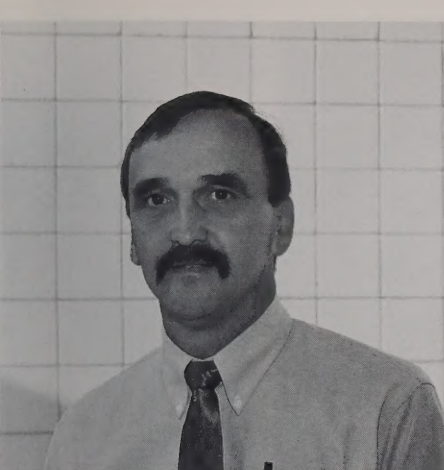

To the Class of 2005:

Our Mission Statement proclaims that "D-R students have the knowledge, skills, sensivity, and social responsibility to be contributing citizens and life long learners." We believe that we have prepared you to do that. You now have the opportunity to prove that to yourselves and to others.

Mr. Trent R. Danella
Principal

To the Class of 2005:

Congratulations! Your hard work and perseverance has paid off. Graduation has arrived. I hope each of you look back at your years at Dighton-Rehoboth with happiness and fond memories. I wish all of you continued success and look forward to hearing about your future accomplishments.

Mr. Michael Cichon
Assistant Principal

To the Class of 2005:

As one of the first classes that I have had the opportunity to get to know well, I can honestly say that it has been an honor to share in some of the experiences of the Class of 2004. Each of you has taught me a lot, and it is my hope that each of you have learned a lot from this school. You have built yourselves a nice foundation for future success, taken advantage of the opportunities presented to you, and are aware of the fact that the world that lies ahead is full of challenges that you can surely overcome. I wish each of you the best, and ask you to keep in mind that you're always a welcome part of this school and community. So good luck, and make sure that the stop by and let us know how you're doing!!!

Mr. Jose Libano
Assistant Principal

To the Class of 2005:

Congratulations on successfully completing your high school education. As you move on with your life, you will soon discover that the education that you have attained is nothing more than a foundation on which to build. Be open to the educational opportunities that will emerge throughout your life. Take advantage of every one of them. Be it through higher education, on the job training, or through the military, go forward and build on the foundation that you have received. You have the basics; now expand on them.

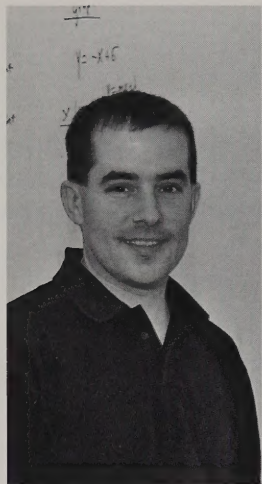

Mr. F. Leon Sibielski
Director of Guidance

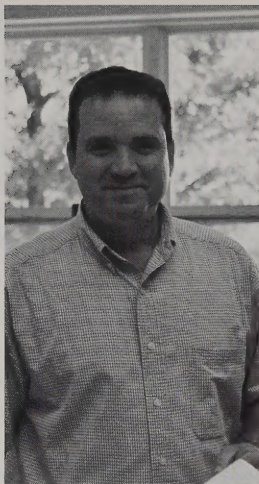

To the Class of 2005:

Congratulations and best wishes to the class of 2005. Hopefully you have chosen to take advantage of the educational opportunities that were available to you at D-R. Employ the knowledge and skills that you have acquired as you prepare yourself for the challenges that await you. Hard work and a positive attitude will serve you well as you set forth to accomplish a new set of goals. Don't let the fear of failure keep you from challenging yourself.

Mock Trial

In Mock Trial, teams are presented with a case. The team then works on either the defense or the plaintiff side, and tries the case in a competition against other schools. Each team is scored on their ability to present the case. This year was D-R's second year with a Mock Trial team.

This year they had several different projects including trash pick up days and recycling days. Project HOPE's largest project this year was the tsunami fundraiser, in which all benefits went to victims of the tsunami.

French Club

The French Club meets about once a month. Meetings are informal get-togethers where students may be playing word games like Scrabble or French Pictionary or learning more about a French holiday or French customs. This year, some members viewed French movies at the Cable Car Theater and at the Rhode Island School of Design auditorium in Providence. Members also provided a group of Dighton Middle School sixth graders with an afterschool program which introduced them to the French language and culture through songs and games. As a culmination of a unit on French cuisine, members of the club prepared and enjoyed a delightful five course meal "Chez Louise." Vive la language francaise!

This year the Latin Club organized many events. To kick off the 2004-2005 Latin Club year, we held a Haunted House Induction Ceremony. During the Christmas season, the Latin Club held a Saturnalia, or Roman Party, that is held during the winter season. Also, some of the members went to sing Christmas Carols in Latin at Brown University. On the Ides of March, the Latin Club reenacted Julius Caesar's death in the classrooms, both in Latin and in English. The Latin Club also took a field trip to the Rhode Island School of Design, to see some Roman and Greek paintings, sculptures, and to learn about the Romans' influence on the rest of the world's art. In order to get a "taste" of Roman and Greek lifestyle, the Latin Club has organized a series of trips to Andreas', an authentic Greek restaurant in Providence. The Latin Club has done many amazing things this year, that have taught the students about many aspects of Roman and Greek life.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club has made several field trips to Providence, visiting Hispanic neighborhoods, stores, and restaurants. These trips have provided opportunities for the students to practice their Spanish in various situations, including eating in Dominican and Mexican restaurants. The National Honor Society continued its strong role at Dighton-Rehoboth this past year. In addition to continued fundraising efforts for the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, the chapter sponsored the peer tutoring program, which involved more than 50 members of NHS, and also served as corridor guides during parent-teacher nights. The group sponsored the annual Remembrance Walk in the fall, and saw its Honor Bowl team enjoy another successful season in the South Coast Conference, scoring impressive victories over New Bedford Vocational, Bourne, and Seekonk. In all, the year was highly successful for the chapter charged with carryin on the strong tradition of scholarship, service, leadership and character.

This year's yearbook worked extremely hard on the production of the 2004-2005 yearbook. The staff met both before and afterschool to work on the yearbook. Individuals also spent their free periods cropping, tagging, and editing the yearbook. The staff would like to thank their new advisor, Mrs. Wosencroft, for successfully completing the 2004-2005 yearbook.

The 2004 season marked the 10th consecutive winning season for the girls' varsity team. In fact, it marked the 7th consecutive season with 15 or more victories. Through the hard work over the years the DR girls have earned the terrific reputation they have at the highest level of respect they continue to receive from opposing programs throughout eastern Massachusetts. Our seniors once again led the way throughout the season both on and off the field. They consistently demonstrated a positive example for the younger players, particularly in terms of work ethic, maturity, and an unselfish commitment to the team. Such behaviors nurture good team chemistry and breed success. We are extremely proud of this valued tradition continues here at DR.

Season Summary

The Falcons fought all the way to the last few seconds of their final game in their unsuccessful attempt to qualify for state tournament play. Following last season's SCC title, the team finished a respectable fifth place in the SCC with an 8-8 record, 9-11 overall. In games against teams with winning records, the falcons could manage only a 1-9 record while they were an impressive 8-2 against teams with losing records. Their most impressive win of the season came against third place Apponequet, 51-44. In the win at GNBVT, the Falcons overcame a nine point halftime deficit, scoring 52 points in the second half to earn an 82-77 win on the road. After missing most of last season due to injury, senior captain Brad Koneski, who averaged 16.3 points per game, was named All SCC for the second time, while senior captain Tim Pacheco, who averaged 10 points and 10 rebounds per game, received honorable mention. Koneski also won the SCC's free throw shooting contest and three point shooting contest. In addition, Koneski won the state free throw shooting contest at the Fleet Center during halftime of the Celtics' game. He was also named second team Academic All State by the Massachusetts State Coaches' Association. Senior Mike Rhoades received the team's Most Improved Player Award.

Season Summary

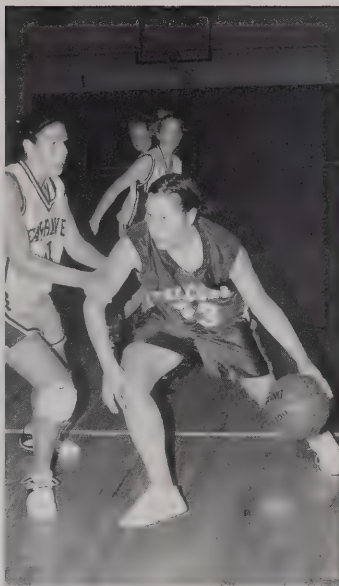

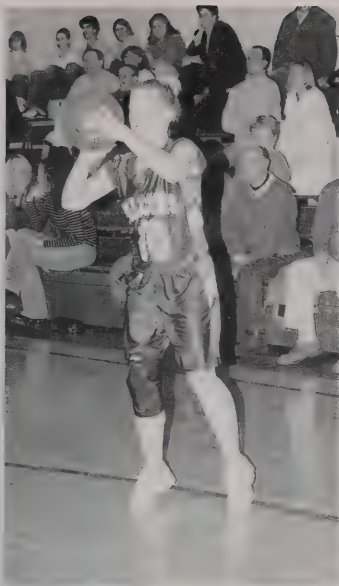

The Lady Falcons opened up their 2004-2005 season campaign with a bang by winning the Hoopsters Holiday Tourney with wins over Stang and Taunton. Kerry Wilusz was named MVP while Nina Nwachukwu garnered All Tourney honors.

The Falcons went on to win their next five contests, putting them at an impressive 7-0 start. The success was due to consistent and balanced scoring of Kerry Wilusz, Nina Nwachukwu, and Jill Dorrance and to the all around play of Katie Rose, Jen Puccini, and Molly Bettencourt.

The Lady Falcons stumbled a bit during the month of January going 0-5 with two losses to Case and a loss to Old Rochester, Fairhaven, and Apponequet. They finished the season playing .500 basketball and qualified for the state tournament on Senior Night against Bourne. Katie Rose's three pointer at the buzzer sent the game into overtime where the Falcons went on to win.

The Falcons drew #5 seeded Sandwich in the first round of the state tourney. D-R jumped out to an early 17-6 lead but the Sandwich defense proved to be too much as they went on to defeat the Falcons 56-50. The Falcons finished the season 11-9 overall and 7-7 in their league.

Season Summary

The boys' track team enjoyed a resurgent 2004-05 season, placing second in the South Coast Conference with an 8-1 overall record. The eight team wins tied the school record for victories in a single season. Led by senior captains Mike Parrella, Greg Morrell, Mike Hoffshire, and Trevor Wilson, as well as seniors Justin Medeiros, Nate Holmes, Steve Hart, Jake Malo, Sam Michel, Nick Jarjoura, and Hunter Dufrane, the Falcons were among the dominant teams in the league, advancing a dozen athletes to the Class Championship. Holmes and Medeiros each lost only a pair of races all season to lead the team in overall scoring, and the team also go strong showings from a number of underclassmen, including Jon Olivier, Zach Stebbings, Josh Jardim, and Jared Torres.

Senior captains Tessa Taylor, Lindsey Fresta, Patricia McCormick, and Jolene Aussant led the team that featured a talented core of ten seniors and a number of strong underclassmen. The 4x2 lap relay team of Lexi Mihailides, Tessa Taylor, Amanda Silvia, and Kelsey Mahoney set a new South Coast Conference record at the SCC relays, and the 4x400 relay of Taylor, Silvia, Mihailides, and senior Janelle Sherman did not lose a single SCC race during the regular season. Girls' Tennis

Season Summary

It was a banner year for the girls' tennis team as 15-5 is probably a DR record. Lisa Therisod (15-5 at #1) and Rachel Elman (19-1 at #2) both had a great year and were named SCC All-Stars for the second year in a row. Rory Keegan and Ashley Barbehenn received Honorable Mention. Rachel at singles and Rory and Ashley at doubles became the first DR girls to make it to the third round at the MIAA individuals in Falmouth. Again we finished second to Old Rochester in the SCC. Christina Arieta and Colie Gosselin had a big doubles win against Apponequet to keep us there. Freshmen Lyndsey Barbehenn also contributed well as a starter. We won our first found match in the states which was another DR first. The 3-2 win over Martha's Vineyard was followed by a 3-2 loss to Canton High School, but it was a wonderful year of memories for the DR netters.

Season Summary

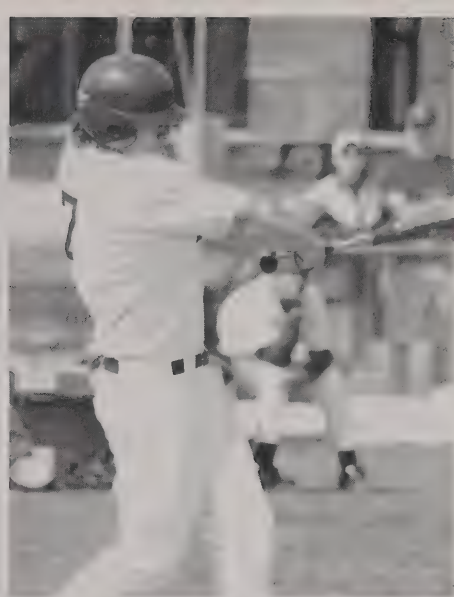

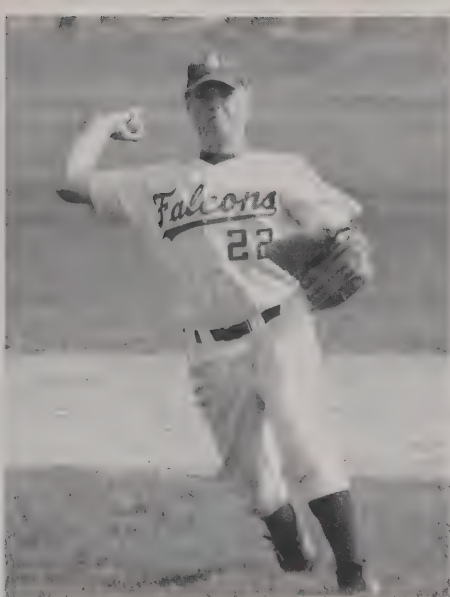

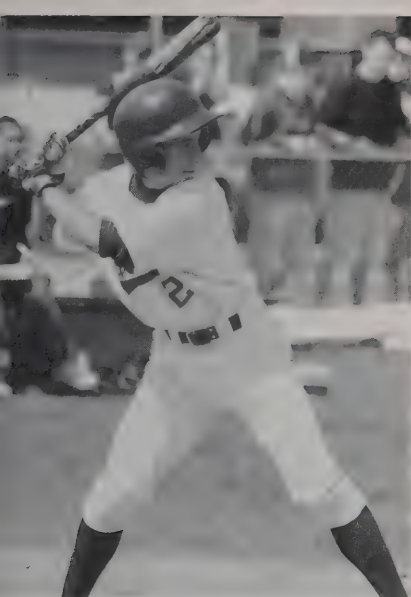

With a young, inexperienced team returning for the 2005 season, not much was expected from the Falcons. However, the group surprised all observers by finishing second in the SCC with a 12-4 mark, 16-8 overall, advancing to the south sectional quarterfinal round. The team was bolstered by an outstanding pitching staff led by SCC honorable mention selections junior Heath Wasylow (6-2, 1.72, 57 k's, 5 bb) and frosh Nate Koneski (6-2, 2.81, 47 k's). Junior Adam Gustafson anchored the bullpen with 2 wins and 2 saves. All SCC selections senior Brad Koneski (.359, 22 runs) and soph Greg Steele (.481, 2 hr, 22 rbi) paced the offensive attack along with Max Gosselin .388, Tyler Lingard .404, and frosh George Agostini .309. Victories over SCC champion Seekonk, Apponequet, Taunton, and a sweep over defending-champion Case highlighted the season. The falcons earned a state tournament 7-0 win over Scituate on the strength of Wasylow's four hit shutout and Greg Steele's mammoth homerun.

Closing Remarks
Mr. Danella, Principal

A Final Word From the Editors...

To the Class of 2005,

Well, we made it! As we write this letter to you, we have recently graduated from D-R. There is definitely a change in the air. The tides have changed from getting up each morning to that which is "known"...which courses to take, what building, which faculty and friends to support us; to a relatively vast unknown...be it in further education, the military, or the workforce. To date, much of our path for better or worse has been carved out for us—right down to hall passes to walk the corridors and permission for such basics as bathroom breaks and water bottles. But the time is right for freedom and change as we each strive to map out our own future. A future which is ours to embrace.

As we leave D-R, there is much to reflect upon. For some of us it may be a favorite course, or a faculty member who took the time to get to know us and perhaps made a difference along the way. It may be an extracurricular activity, a club, a team, the band or the theatre. Time spent at D-R has no doubt been a unique experience for each one of us, with some common experiences as well. Who could forget the global effects of 9/11? Or locally, the construction, the flood down the staircase, the early dismissal due to lack of heat, the water balloon fight, spirit week (go girl's tug!), or the dances to name a few. For most of us, however, D-R will be best remembered for the friendships forged along the way.

As we move towards our respective futures, it is important that we take with us those memories, the good and the bad, and that we learn from them. In the least, these past four years have been a time of tremendous growth. Not only about education, but also about ourselves, about people, and about life in general. Our wish for each of you is that wherever you go, whatever you do...may you never forget or take for granted those who have touched your life along the way. Always value your family and friends and may you never miss an opportunity to make a difference in the lives of those around you.

We would like to thank our class advisors, Mrs. Braga and Miss Saxon for all of their time and energy organizing such important events for us as Senior Supper, Winter Ball, and Senior Prom. And thank you to Mrs. Wosencroft for allowing me to work alongside you to pull this yearbook together. On behalf of the Class of 2005 we wish all of this year's retirees much health and happiness. Thank you to those faculty members who took the time to get to know us, by name, as people. It makes a difference! And to our classmates and friends, thank you for sharing the journey with us. We will miss you. Embrace the new found freedom. And whatever you do, may you do it well!

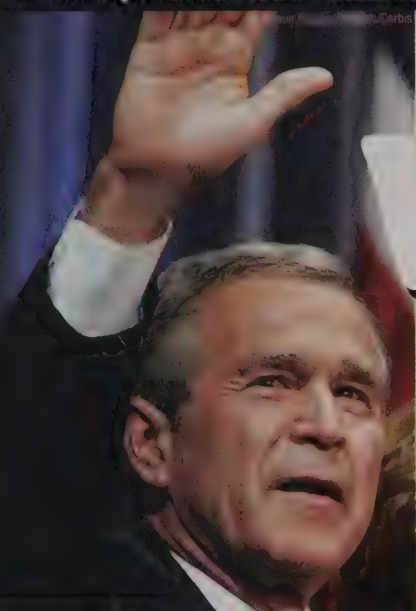

Congratulations to the Class of 2005! Good luck!

Sincerely,

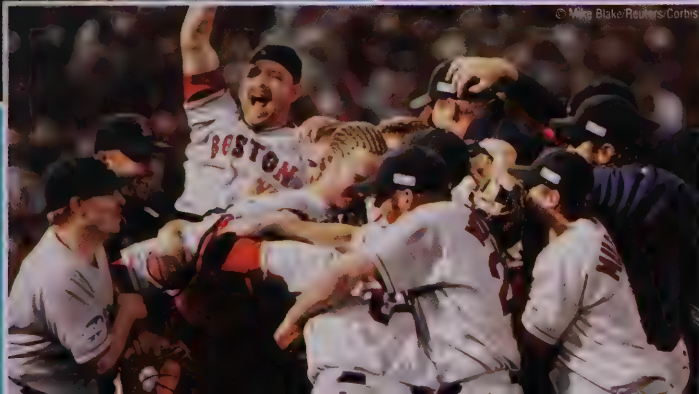

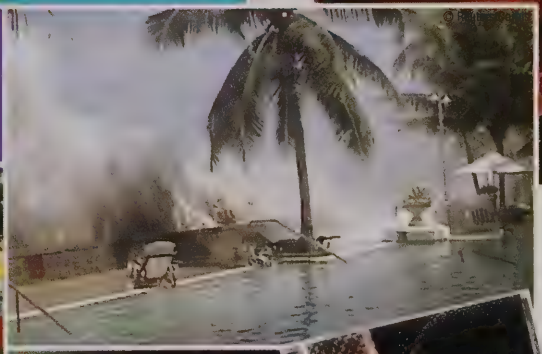

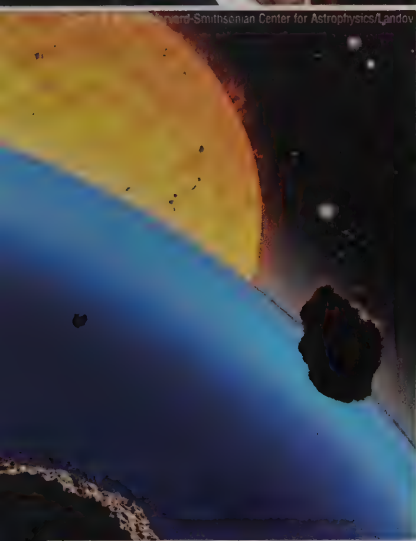

Denise DeMello & Holly Rebello, Co-Editors
